

The Cows Are Out!

Chorus:

C-----G---C
The cows are out! The cows are out!
-----G---C
Hear the neighbors scream and shout!
-----F
Old May, and Jean, and Valerie,
-----C
Red Wing, Princess, and Little Cin-dy.
G-----G7
The cows are out! The cows are out!
-----F-----G---C
The cows are out and on a spree!

C-----G---C
Wintertime has passed and fled,
-----G---C
The cows have left their shin-gled shed;
-----F
In the old Barn Field they're grazing there;
-----C
May lifts her head and sniffs the air.
---G-----G7
A gleam returns to Old May's eyes,
-----F-----C
As she nears the gate the brown dust flies;
-----G-----G7
She clears the bars as she makes her break;
-----F-----C
The rest of the herd follows in her wake. (CHO)

Down Stone Bridge Lane to Robinhood Road,
One sharp right to the Village abodes,
Cows munching flowers left and right:
Tulips, Crocus, and Poppies bright.
The neighbors awake to what's about;
Run in circles, scream and shout;
One steps inside to raise alarm,
Dials up the folks at Robinhood Farm. (CHO)

Come Bob and Charlie in great haste,
You know they have no time to waste;
They'll loop a rope 'round Old May's neck,
And lead her back up the road, I 'spect.
The cows are back in the old Barn Field;
The Village folks survive their ordeal;
May chews her cud, thinks with a grin,
Next spring we'll do it all ag'in! (CHO)
